

A NEW HOSPITALITY IN HISTORIC SURROUNDINGS, SUPERBLY LOCATED

THE HENTRICHHAUS INFO SHEET

From the main entrance to the Hentrichhaus, named after its architect, Helmut Hentrich (1905 - 2001), the wide sweep of a staircase winds up to the Rotunda, the foyer on the upper storey, and to the THEATERSAAL and APPENDIX - past spectacular installations of contemporary art. The Theatersaal auditorium and stage allows multiple uses - performances, conferences and conventions, lectures or banquets on a larger scale. With a total area of 200 sq. m it accommodates up to 250 people. It has a large stage with a recessed screen and a backstage area. By opening the partition to the APPENDIX the Theatersaal can be extended to cover 260 sq. m. The APPENDIX alone, at 60 sq. m, accommodates up to 70 people and is a popular option for press conferences, conventions, seminars or smaller-scale banquets. On the ground floor of the Hentrichhaus are the Bar and Restaurant. A curving flight of stairs descends via a basement lobby with a cloakroom/checkroom, down another half-flight of stairs to the KÜNSTLERKELLER, the vaulted 'Artists' Cellar'. Enter and see unfolding before you a space you would not expect under the modernist 1950s building - rambling, with arches, niches, a vaulted ceiling; and it has some legendary celebrating and partying to look back on. It is also a fine venue for larger banquets or presentations. Covering an area of 250 sq. m, the Künstlerkeller offers room for up to 200 people. Please bear in mind when planning your event that the space is virtually subdivided by columns and arches. The average ceiling height is about 3 m.

The HENTRICHHAUS has

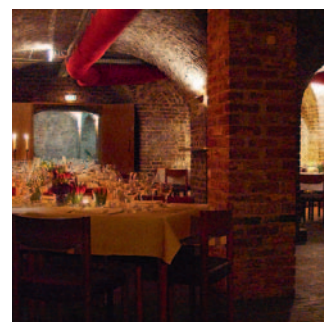

- in the basement, the Künstlerkeller,
- on the ground floor, the Bar and Restaurant,
- on the upper storey, the Theatersaal and Appendix.
